Sections:

2.32.010 Created—Composition.

2.32.020 Purpose.

2.32.010 Created—Composition.

There is created a Porter County hazardous materials council. The Porter County health officer shall be the permanent chairman of the hazardous materials council. The health officer or his designee shall call and chair all meetings of the council, and the staff of the Porter County health department shall provide support and assistance to the council. The council shall have a maximum of forty (40) members who will serve upon the appointment and at the pleasure of the Porter County health officer. Members of the council shall receive no compensation for service on the council. In making appointments to the hazardous materials council, the Porter County health officer shall balance its membership both geographically and demographically. In making appointments to the hazardous materials council, the Porter County health officer shall also balance its membership between representatives of local units of government and private industry in Porter County. The health officer's appointments to the hazardous materials council shall also be individuals who have shown an interest and knowledge in hazardous materials and substance handling.

(Res. 87-3 § 1)

2.32.020 Purpose.

The mission and purpose of the Porter County hazardous materials council shall be to advise the Porter County health officer on hazardous materials and substance handling issues. The council shall also assist the health officer and the board of county commissioners in establishing overall guidelines and policies with regard to the transportation and handling of hazardous materials and substances in Porter County. (Res. 87-3 § 2)

2.36.010 Established—Composition.

There is established the Porter County hazardous materials response team. The response team shall consist of a minimum of twelve (12) individuals who have volunteered for membership on the response team. Membership on the response team shall be by appointment (from those who have volunteered) by the Porter County health officer after seeking the recommendation and advice of the Porter County hazardous materials council. The Porter County health officer or his designee shall be responsible for supervision and management of the response team activities. The response team members shall show themselves to have expertise, knowledge and interest in responding to problems created by hazardous materials and substance handling and transportation in Porter County. Members of the response team shall serve at the pleasure of the Porter County health officer.

(Res. 87-3 § 4)

2.36.020 Purpose.

The mission and purpose of the hazardous materials response team shall be to respond to hazardous materials and substance handling and transportation problems. The team shall be "called out" by the Porter County health officer or his designee as need may arise. At the scene of any incident, the Porter County health officer or his designee shall be responsible for the activities of the team and shall direct and otherwise supervise its members.

(Res. 87-3 § 5)

2.36.030 Compensation.

Although the hazardous materials response team shall receive no compensation from Porter County, during such time as the team is responding to hazardous materials incidents, the team members shall be considered employees of Porter County for purposes of the availability of insurance coverage through Porter County.

(Res. 87-3 § 6)

2.36.040 Chapter provisions not exclusive.

It is further contemplated that the hazardous materials response team activities shall fall within the immunity provisions of I.C. 34-4-12.2-2.

2.48.010 Created—Provisions adopted by reference.

There shall be created an ordinance violations bureau pursuant to I.C. 33-6-3-1 et seq., as it may be amended from time to time, for the county. All provisions of I.C. 33-6-3 Sections 1 through 5 as they exist now and may be amended in the future are adopted as part of this chapter as if the same were reprinted here in its entirety.

- B. The clerk of the circuit court is appointed and shall serve as the violations clerk and shall administer the bureau.

(Ord. 97-14 §§ A, B)

2.48.020 Powers and duties.

The ordinance violations bureau shall have all power and duties authorized by state law.

(Ord. 97-14 § C)

2.48.030 Schedule of penalties.

The attached schedule of ordinances and the Porter County Code provisions are subject to admission of violation before the violations clerk and includes the amount of the civil penalty to be assessed a violator who elects to admit a violation.

This schedule shall establish civil penalties to be assessed a violator who elects to admit to an ordinance or code violation, but shall in no way impair the ability of the county to bring suit to seek the imposition of a fine greater than that provided for by the schedule that is otherwise allowed by this code of the county and/or any state law.

(Ord. 97-14 §§ D, E)

2.48.040 Payment of civil penalties.

Civil penalties shall be paid to, receipted and accounted for by the violations clerk under procedures provided by the State Board of Accounts.

Payment of civil penalties may be made in person or by mail to the violations clerk.

(Ord. 97-14 §§ F, G)

2.48.050 Assessment of penalty.

Upon a person waiving the right to trial and entering an admission of a violation with the violations clerk, the clerk shall assess and receive from the violator the amount prescribed by the schedule set forth in the attached exhibit.

(Ord. 97-14 § H)

2.48.060 Administration authority.

The provisions of I.C. Section 33-6-3-1 through 33-6-3-5, as they may be amended from time to time, shall govern the operations of the violations bureau and the collection of all civil penalties.

(Ord. 97-14 § I)

2.48.070 Use of funds.

Proceeds from the ordinance violations bureau shall be placed into the county general fund, unless otherwise designated with a specific ordinance subject to this chapter and passed by the Porter County board of commissioners.

(Ord. 97-14 § J)

2.48.080 Penalties for specific violations.

2.56.010 County emergency management program—Established.

A Porter County department of emergency management and a Porter County emergency management advisory council is established in Porter County, Indiana pursuant to I.C. 10-4-1 et seq.

(Ord. 98-28 § 1)

2.56.020 County emergency management program—Purpose.

The purpose of this chapter is to establish in Porter County a department of emergency management and to provide for the exercise of necessary powers during emergencies.

The purpose of this chapter is to establish a Porter County emergency management advisory council which shall exercise general supervision and control over the emergency management and disaster program of the county.

(Ord. 98-28 § 2)

2.56.030 County emergency management program—Definitions and general provisions.

A. Definitions. As used in this chapter hereinafter the following words and terms have the meanings indicated.

"Advisory council" means the Porter County emergency management advisory council as established under this chapter, pursuant to I.C. 10-4-1-10.

"Board" means the board of county commissioners, as elected pursuant to I.C. 36-2-2.

"Chairman" means the chairman of the Porter County emergency management advisory council as established under this chapter, pursuant to I.C. 10-4-1-10.

"Department" means the department of emergency management as established under this chapter, pursuant to I.C. 10-4-1-10.

"Director" means the county director of emergency management as established and appointed pursuant to this chapter.

"Disaster" means the occurrence or imminent threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from any natural or man-made cause, including but not limited to fire, flood, earthquake, wind, storm, wave action, oil spill, other water contamination requiring emergency action to avert danger or damage, hazardous materials spill or contamination requiring emergency action to avert danger or damage, air contamination, drought, explosion, riot or hostile military or paramilitary action which cannot be handled by normal operating personnel, procedures, resources or facilities.

"Emergency management" means the preparation for and the execution of all emergency functions, to include mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery.

"Emergency management volunteer" means any person who serves without compensation in the department of emergency management, being first duly rostered, identified and appointed by the director, including persons and private agencies or governmental units offering services to the county during emergency situations or mutual aid to other emergency services who request assistance.

"Man-made disaster" means any incidents including, but not limited to, riots, strikes, insurrections, terrorist acts, civil disturbances, threats to national security or other man-made cause.

"Natural disaster" means any incidents affecting or threatening public health, welfare, safety or security including, but not limited to, flood, tornado, earthquake, wind, storm, winter storm or other natural cause.

"Participating emergency service" means:

- a. any county department or agency designated in the emergency operations plan to participate in emergency management activities pursuant to Section 2.56.040\(E\); and
- b. Any department or agency of the state, another county, a municipal corporation, or a volunteer organization designated to participate in the county's emergency management programs and activities pursuant to a cooperative or mutual aid agreement entered into pursuant to I.C. 10-4-1-0 and Section 2.56.040 of this chapter.

"Personnel" means county officers and employees and emergency management volunteers, unless otherwise indicated.

"Plan" or "emergency plan" means the current local emergency plan whose preparation and updating are mandated by I.C. 10-4-1-10(j).

"Principal executive officer" of the county as referred to in I.C. 10-4-1-23(a) for purposes of declaring a local disaster emergency, and as referred to hereinafter, means the regularly designated president of the board of county commissioners, except if he is unavailable or incapacitated, and the board has a regularly designated president pro tem., then the president pro tem. shall be the principal executive officer. If the president is unavailable or incapacitated and there is no designated president pro tem., then the remaining two commissioners shall select among themselves one to be the principal executive officer in the same matter as when an ordinary business meeting needs to be conducted in the absence of the president. If both the president and another commissioner are absent or incapacitated, then the remaining commissioner shall be considered the principal executive officer. In the absence or incapacity of all county commissioners, the office of principal executive officer shall devolve upon first the county auditor, second, upon the county clerk, third, upon the county recorder, and fourth, the director.

The principal executive officer of the county selected by the above procedure, if not a member of the county commission, shall exercise all powers and fulfill all duties of the principal executive officer under I.C. 10-4-1-23(a) until such time as a county commissioner shall no longer be unavailable or incapacitated, at which time the county commissioner, or the regularly designated president of the board if he is no longer unavailable or incapacitated, shall assume all the powers and duties associated with the office of president of the board. The principal executive officer of the county selected by the above procedure, if a member of the county commission, shall exercise all powers and fulfill all duties of the principal executive officer under I.C. 10-4-1-23(a) until such time as the regularly designated president of the board shall no longer be unavailable or incapacitated, at which time the regularly designated president of the board shall resume all the powers and duties associated with his office.

"SEMA" means the State Emergency Management Agency established under I.C. 10-8-2-1.

"Technological disaster" means any incidents including, but not limited to, severe fire, explosions, hazardous material spills, radiological problems or other technological cause.

- B. General Scope and Intent—Liberal Construction of Powers. The general intent of this chapter is to provide for all necessary and indispensable powers and procedures reasonably needed to mitigate, prepare for, respond to and recover from emergency conditions. To this end all powers, both ministerial and discretionary, as conferred herein shall be liberally construed and shall be construed as intending to supplement and augment, and not to limit, any other powers or reasonable exercise of discretion which may ordinarily pertain to county officers, employees, department, and agencies.

- C. Limitation—Nonsuppression of Emergency Powers of County Sheriff. Nothing in this chapter is intended to supersede or delimit any statutory powers of the county sheriff to request assistance of the national guard under the circumstances delineated in I.C. 10-2-4-6 and 7.
- D. Limitations—Nonsuppression of Emergency Powers of Incorporated Municipalities—Conformance of Mutual Regulation with County Regulations. Nothing in this chapter is intended to supersede or delimit the powers of any incorporated municipality under I.C. 10-4-1-10 to adopt and implement emergency plans, and promulgate and enforce special emergency regulations and procedures in the advent of an actual emergency affecting such municipality. However, pursuant to I.C. 10-4-1-15, such regulations and procedures as promulgated by the municipal authorities may not be inconsistent with the Porter County emergency regulations and procedures as established in this chapter.

(Ord. 98-28 § 3)

2.56.040 County emergency management program—Organization and administration of department of emergency management.

- A. Porter County Emergency Management Advisory Council Established—Appointment and Terms of Members. In accordance with I.C. 10-4-1-10(d), there is established the Porter County emergency management advisory council which shall consist of the following persons or their designees:
 - 1. The president of the county executive.
 - 2. The president of the county fiscal body.
 - 3. The mayor of each city located in the county.
 - 4. An individual representing the legislative bodies of all towns located within the county.
 - 5. Representatives of such private and public agencies or organizations which can be of assistance to emergency management as the organizing group considers appropriate, or as may be added later by the county emergency management advisory council.
 - 6. One commander of a local civil air patrol unit in the county or the commander's designee.
- B. The advisory council shall have a chairman, a vice chairman, and a recording secretary. These officers shall be elected by the advisory council for one year terms.
- C. Duties of Emergency Management Advisory Council—As Established in I.C. 10-4-1-10(f).
 - 1. The Porter County emergency management advisory council shall exercise general supervision and control over the emergency management and disaster program of the county and shall select or cause to be selected, with the approval of the county executive, a county emergency management and disaster director who shall have direct responsibility for the organization, administration, and operation of the emergency management program in the county and shall be responsible to the chairman of the county emergency management advisory council. In addition, the Porter County emergency management advisory council shall have any specific responsibilities as set forth at I.C. 10-4-1 et seq.
 - 2. In addition, pursuant to I.C. 10-4-1-10(k) the Porter County emergency management advisory council shall prepare and distribute to all appropriate officials in written form, a clear and complete statement of the emergency responsibilities of all local agencies and officials of the disaster chain of command.
 - 3. The advisory council shall have the power to terminate, with the approval of the county executive, a county emergency management director, under the circumstances delineated in subsection (E)(2) of this section.
 - 4. The Porter County emergency management advisory council shall meet as needed to efficiently and effectively perform the designated duties of that advisory council as set forth at I.C. 10-4-1- et seq.; which meetings are to occur no less than on a quarterly basis.

5. Any and all meetings of the advisory council shall be open meetings and shall be posted in accordance with I.C. 5-14-1.5.
- D. Department of Emergency Management Established—Organization and Constituency of the Department.
1. There is established a department of emergency management within the executive branch of the county government for the purpose of utilizing to the fullest extent possible the personnel and facilities of existing county departments and agencies to prepare for and meet any disaster as defined in this chapter. The county commissioners and director of emergency management shall be responsible for its organization, administration and operation. The department shall consist of the following:
 - a. An executive head of the department of emergency management, who shall be known as the director of emergency management appointed in accordance with subsection (D)(2) of this section;
 - b. A deputy director, who shall be appointed by the director with the approval of the advisory council;
 - c. Emergency management volunteers, as deemed necessary and appointed by the director in accordance with subsection I of this section and in accordance with the plan;
 - d. The employees, equipment and facilities of all county departments and agencies suitable for, or adaptable to emergency management and designated by the plan to participate in emergency management activity;
 - e. Staff officers with responsibility for warning and communications, radiological, health, emergency care, police, fire and rescue, public works and public information in accordance with the plan; and
 - f. Such assistants, clerical help, and other employees as deemed necessary to the proper functioning of the department who may be appointed by the director in accordance with the plan.
 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no compensated position may be established within the department of emergency management nor any person appointed to such position without:
 - a. The authorization of the county council pursuant to I.C. 36-2-5-3(a); and
 - b. The making of sufficient appropriations to pay such compensation.
 3. The county council shall not have any power of approval over particular candidates for any position, but the county council shall have general statutory powers to determine the numbers of officers, deputies, and employees of county departments, classify positions, and adopt schedules of compensation.
 4. It is the intent of this section that emergency management and disaster assignments under the plan shall be as nearly consistent with normal duty assignments as possible.
- E. Director of Emergency Management—Appointment, Qualifications and Tenure.
1. The director of emergency management shall be appointed by the county emergency management advisory council with the approval of the county executive. The director of emergency management may be a full time or part time position, at the discretion of the Porter County board of commissioners. In addition, the director may hold another local, state or federal office if the Porter County board of commissioners determines that to be appropriate.
 2. The appointment of the director shall be permanent unless the advisory council, pursuant to subsection (C)(3) of this section, determines the director to be:
 - a. Incapable of fulfilling his duties due to physical or mental disability; or

- b. Unwilling to perform his duties as mandated below.
 3. The advisory council shall consult with the executive director of SEMA to obtain his/her opinion on the abilities and competence of the director prior to the advisory council's termination of the director under subsection (E)(2) of this section. The SEMA executive director's opinion hereunder shall be advisory only.
 4. Additional qualifications for director may be determined by the advisory council, with input from the county commissioners pursuant to I.C. 10-4-1-10(d).
- F. Director of Emergency Management—General Powers and Duties. The director, subject to the direction and control of the advisory council, shall be executive head of the department and shall have responsibility for the organization, administration and operation of the emergency management organization, including the following specific powers and duties:
1. Submitting to the advisory council and the county commissioners a yearly report on the county's comprehensive emergency management, including mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery taken in the previous year and planned and recommended for the year to come;
 2. Keeping the county commissioners fully informed on emergency management activities;
 3. Writing and implementing the plan, which shall conform to the guidelines contained in the most current state and federal guidance documents if the county wishes to receive state and/or federal matching funds;
 4. Assuring that all county employees and rostered volunteers with responsibilities as part of the plan receive training in the functions which they are to perform under the plan;
 5. Designing and conducting exercises of the plan, as required by SEMA;
 6. Assuring that the plan addresses all hazards and includes all cities, towns, and other population centers within the county;
 7. Updating the plan as needed to keep it current, as required by I.C. 10-4-1-10(j);
 8. Identifying and analyzing the effects of hazards that threaten the jurisdiction;
 9. Working closely with officers and employees of incorporated and unincorporated areas of the county to develop a hazard mitigation program to eliminate or reduce potential hazards;
 10. Inventorying manpower and material resources from governmental and private sector sources that would be available in a disaster or emergency;
 11. Identifying resource deficiencies and working with appropriate officials on measures to correct them;
 12. Developing an emergency operating center ("EOC") as a site from which key officials can direct and control operations during a disaster or emergency;
 13. Developing and maintaining emergency communications systems;
 14. Establishing a system to alert key officials in the event of a disaster or emergency;
 15. Developing continuity of government procedures and systems;
 16. Establishing and maintaining a shelter and reception and care system;
 17. Developing a training program for emergency response personnel;
 18. Developing a test and exercise program;

- C. Special Emergency Powers and Duties of Principal Executive Officer—Declaration of Local Disaster Emergency.
1. In the event of actual or threatened enemy attack or disaster affecting the county, the principal executive officer of the county may declare a local disaster emergency, pursuant to I.C. 10-4-2-3(a) for any period, not to exceed seven days.
 2. The declaration shall:
 - a. Be in writing;
 - b. Indicate the nature of the disaster;
 - c. Indicate the conditions which have brought the disaster about;
 - d. Indicate the area or areas threatened;
 - e. Indicate the area or areas to which the state of emergency applies (which may include the entire county or only designated parts thereof); and
 - f. Be announced or disseminated to the general public by the best means available.
 3. The declaration shall be filed in the offices of:
 - a. The county clerk;
 - b. The county auditor; and
 - c. The clerk of any incorporated municipality included in the declared disaster area.
 4. The declaration shall not be invalidated nor ineffective if any of the filing and dissemination requirements cannot be complied with due to the prevailing adverse circumstances.
 5. Upon a declaration, the county's comprehensive emergency management and disaster control plan which has been adopted pursuant to Section 2.56.040\(L\) or such several component parts thereof as may be relevant to the emergency shall be:
 - a. Activated; and
 - b. Implemented.
 6. Such a declaration shall not be necessary if the Governor, pursuant to I.C. 10-4-1-7, has already proclaimed a statewide or area wide state of emergency including the county.
- D. Special Emergency Powers and Duties of Principal Executive Officer—Convention of Emergency Meeting of Board of Commissioners—Special Meeting Procedures.
1. As soon as possible after a disaster emergency affecting the county is declared either by the Governor or by the principal executive officer of the county, the principal executive officer of the county shall convene a meeting of the county commissioners to perform their legislative and administrative functions as the situation may demand.
 2. If the principal executive officer fails or is unable to convene a meeting as mandated above, the meeting shall be convened in accordance with I.C. 36-2-2-3(A).

3. Any such meeting of the commissioners shall:
 - a. Be deemed an emergency meeting;
 - b. Be subject only to such procedural provisions of law as govern emergency meetings of county commissioners;
 - c. Include relaxation of any applicable notice requirements pursuant to I.C. 5-14-1.5-5(d);
 - d. Be held in any convenient and available place;
 - e. Continue without adjournment for the duration of the disaster emergency; and
 - f. Be recessed for reasonable periods of time as necessary and permitted by the circumstances.
- E. Special Emergency Powers and Duties of Principal Executive Officer—Plenipotentiary Powers in Absence of Board Quorum.
 1. In the event that a quorum of the board of commissioners cannot be assembled for purposes of the meeting required under subsection D of this section, the principal executive officer of the county shall:
 - a. Be considered a plenipotentiary representative of the board;
 - b. Have all powers of the full board; and
 - c. Take all actions of the full board.
 2. When a quorum is assembled, such plenipotentiary powers shall cease.
- F. Special Emergency Powers and Duties of Board of Commissioners.
 1. At the meeting convened under subsection D of this section, the commissioners may exercise any of their normal executive and legislative powers to the extent related to the emergency and necessary to deal therewith.
 2. In addition to the powers enumerated in subsection (F)(1) of this section, the board may also exercise any of the following special and extraordinary powers:
 - a. The commissioners may extend the period of a state of emergency declared by the chief executive officer pursuant to subsection C of this section, to last more than seven days if necessary.
 - b. The commissioners may terminate the state of emergency, except for a state of emergency declared by the Governor.
 - c. The commissioners may assemble and utilize emergency management forces, including:
 - i. Personnel of the department of emergency management;
 - ii. Participating emergency services; and
 - iii. Any other forces at the disposal of the commissioners hereunder for emergency management purposes.
 - d. The commissioners may order volunteer forces which have been activated pursuant to the plan to the aid of the county, state or political subdivisions thereof as soon as practicable. These volunteer forces shall be under the direction of the department of emergency management.
 - e. In order to control the local disaster emergency and provide for public health, safety and welfare, the commissioners may, to the extent permitted by I.C. 10-41-25 and subject to its provisions, command services and/or requisition the use of:
 - i. Equipment;
 - ii. Facilities;

- iii. Supplies; or
 - iv. Other property.
- f. The commissioners may order the evacuation of all or part of the population from stricken areas of the county, and prescribe:
- i. Routes;
 - ii. Modes of transportation; and
 - iii. Evacuation destinations.
- g. The commissioners may make provision for availability and use of temporary emergency housing, which housing need not necessarily comply with any minimum housing standards, building or zoning regulations, etc., which would govern the use and location of premises for housing purposes during normal times.
- h. The commissioners may suspend, for the duration of the state of emergency (or for a lesser period as they determine), any provisions of or procedures prescribed by ordinances of the county if they:
- i. Would be impractical during the emergency;
 - ii. Would interfere with the implementation and carrying out of emergency plans; or
 - iii. Would be inimical to actions necessary to protect the public safety and welfare.
- i. Except in accordance with subsection (F)(2)(m) of this section the commissioners shall not suspend any provisions of ordinances or procedures which are mandated by statute.
- j. In the event of enemy attack, or when the state of emergency has been proclaimed by the Governor, the commissioners, in accordance with I.C. 10-4-1-10(j)(5), may waive any procedures or requirements of statute, or of county ordinances reflecting statutory requirements and mandates, and pertaining to:
- i. The appropriation and expenditure of public funds;
 - ii. The incurring of obligations;
 - iii. The performance of public works;
 - iv. The entering into contracts;
 - v. The employment of workers whose employment may be either:
 - (A) Permanent, or
 - (B) Temporary;
 - vi. The utilization of volunteer workers;
 - vii. The rental of equipment;
 - viii. The purchase and distribution of:
 - (A) Supplies,
 - (B) Materials, and
 - (C) Facilities;
- k. The commissioners may assign any special emergency duties and functions to county:
- (i) Offices;
 - (ii) Departments; and
 - (iii) Agencies.

- H. General Duties of Officers and Employees of Incorporated and Unincorporated Areas of the County During Emergency. During a declared emergency, all officers and employees of incorporated and unincorporated areas of the county shall:
 - 1. Cooperate with and give active support to:
 - a. The county commissioners; and
 - b. The county emergency management director.
 - 2. Comply with all orders issued pursuant to this chapter by:
 - a. The commissioners; and
 - b. The county emergency management director.
- I. Priority of Emergency Orders, Rules and Regulations. At all times when the orders, rules and regulations made and promulgated pursuant to this chapter shall be in effect, they shall supersede all existing inconsistent:
 - 1. Ordinances;
 - 2. Orders;
 - 3. Rules; and
 - 4. Regulations.
- J. Noncompliance with Emergency Orders, Rules and Regulations—Obstruction or Impersonation of Emergency Management Authorities—Penalties and Enforcement.
 - 1. Whenever this chapter applies it is unlawful and a penal ordinance violation for any person to:
 - a. Wilfully obstruct, hinder or delay the commissioners, the director of emergency management, participating emergency services, authorized emergency management volunteers or other authorities from implementing, carrying out and enforcing emergency plans and procedures;
 - b. Fail to observe, abide by, and comply with any emergency management duties, orders, regulations and procedures as made applicable to such person by the appropriate authorities; or
 - c. Falsely wear or carry identification as a member of the county department of emergency management or to otherwise falsely identify or purport to be a county emergency management authority.
 - 2. Any person who commits an offense as described above shall be liable to a fine of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00); such fine to be subject, however, to the discretion of the court of jurisdiction.
 - 3. Any regular or reserve police officer of the state of Indiana or any of its political subdivisions is hereby empowered to issue and serve a civil citation against any person found to be committing an offense described above.
